Brenda Spieker, CEOE Courtesy Jean Harrison - Assisted by Kris Wallace Conference Liaison	from interested members. I have brainstormed some events I would like to undertake and would love and other as well if you have a special interest: Food Bank Donation and Volunteer Night and LPSAOP team in walk in April, Gifts of Love, Trash and Beautification project at city park or schools, Planting trees and or garden(Arbor day), LIED Center Volunteering, Foster Care Closet Help and /or Donations, Salvation Army volunteer. These are ideas I have started researching and have some information. I am waiting to schedule dates and events to coordinate with other LPSAOP events and activities. Gifts of Love I really want to continue. The event is in December and the sign up to volunteer is in October. Update on ideas for events: Hosting a blood donation drive Sympathy card to Sarah Kripal - loss of her father Thank you card to Joanne Lahm - donation to LPSAOP Speedy recovery/$20 gift card to Nancy Harter - surgery/hospital stay

Insurance Safety Liaison	Safety Committee met on August 18th via zoom. We reviewed the claims comparison reports for April, May, and June as well as the Special Ed Tech and Para Injuries Reports. We also discussed building total injury reports for Sept 2020 thru June 2021. Accident prevention in the buildings was also discussed and we reviewed General Safety Guidelines for Employees. Workers compensation was also a topic of discussion with the committee reviewing the overall and specifics of the LPS workers compensation policies. I would be glad to answer any questions you might have.
Kelly Rassfeld	Compensation policies. Two	ould be glad to answer any qu	desilons you might have.
Media Diane Taurins, CEOE	I updated the scholarship information on the LPSAOP website. I'll post info on Facebook and Twitter on the first member meeting when it's available. Diane has a committee member Nicole Beckman.
